FOREWORD

IT is unfortunate that the printing art cannot adequately portray our wares. The printer has done his best.

But it is impossible to illustrate the depth of stamping, the sharp definition of detail, the heavy brass or the full beauty of structural line — all of which are characteristic of Vester shells and ornaments.

The chief service rendered by this catalog, therefore, is to facilitate selection.

The new system of numbering will, we hope, assist the memory when reordering items in our line.

The arrangement, according to a natural classification, should also be helpful to our customers.

Our original designs are protected by patent. We will be glad to submit estimates on exclusive designs.

The following data should be kept in mind when sending mail orders:

- (a.) Goods will be shipped as illustrated in the catalog, in the absence of contrary instructions.
- (b.) Socket covers will be shipped keyless unless specially ordered slotted for key.
- (c.) Slip rings are not supplied with canopies unless ordered, in which case an additional charge will be made.
- (d.) When ordering combination ceiling lights always state size of fitter desired, (2¼ in., 3¼ in., or 4 in.)
- (e.) Combination ceiling lights can be supplied without flat flange, if so ordered.

(f.) Be sure to observe the half numbers, as for example in ordering threaded collar husks for ball lamps.

(g.) Unless definite shipping instructions are given, our shipping department will use its judgment in deciding whether goods are to be forwarded via freight, express or parcel post — particularly when wanted in a hurry. In the absence of shipping instructions, we cannot honor claims for excessive transportation charges.

(h.) All our goods are unfinished.

(i.) Our terms are 2 per cent 10 days, net 30 days, f. o. b., Providence.

(j.) Cases and other containers charged at cost.

(k.) Our responsibility ends when we obtain carrier's receipt. Claims for shortage must be made within 5 days after receipt of goods.

We aim to carry ample stocks in order to make prompt shipments. Our quality is absolutely guaranteed and we will replace without cost any goods not satisfactory.

Miscellaneous Stamped Brass Shells

THE stampings illustrated in this supplement comprise a series of parts which have been added to our line recently.

They may be termed "miscellaneous" as distinguished from the complete sets such as Wild Rose, Plymouth and others either illustrated in our Catalog E or in later supplements.

The trade will doubtless recognize in these later additions to the Vester line not only the distinctiveness which, we hope, is characteristic of all Vester products, but also the constant striving to reduce the fixture manufacturer's costs by introducing simplified mechanical ideas.

The Vester line of stampings now is extensive enough to offer a wide range of choice to fixture designers. Nevertheless it is our intention to expand the line still further.
